

Ratito Junior

Ratito Junior is the Mean Rat's son. In spite of living in an adverse environment with many drawbacks and shortages, Junior has been able to maximize the few opportunities he had in structuring and leading a productive life. He has seen how his mother has suffered from dental pain and wanted to avoid that bad dental condition, so he has followed the preventive path by maximizing oral hygiene and keeping candies, chocolates and soda consumption under control, that is following the rhyme: 'brush every day and keep sugars at bay'

Being a highly sensitive individual, he has been able to establish an emotional connection with his bad-tempered mother and shared a common interest in chemistry and alchemy with her. He is also brave, physically strong and knows how to defend himself. Junior represents a youngster living in marginalized urban areas. Life will bring him at a crossroad where he has to choose between good and evil.

Ratito Junior has a great internal strength that allows him to overcome adversities, leaving an invincible light of hope shining in the dark. He will hold the vision of turning the Rat Gang Headquarters from a marginalized burrow in the castle into a productive center with their own resources.
